Madison Neighborhood Indicators 2014

Allis Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 457 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

The Madison Neighborhood Indicators project seeks to quantify the diverse and changing social conditions in Madison neighborhoods. The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. Correspondence between some neighborhood associations and planning district geographies required suppression of these data for neighborhood geographies.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Madison Neighborhood Indicators 2014

Blackhawk Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 411 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Capitol Square Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 277 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Cross Country Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 1,030 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

East-Morland Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 721 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Fair Oaks Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 572 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

The Madison Neighborhood Indicators project seeks to quantify the diverse and changing social conditions in Madison neighborhoods. The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2012 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Highlands Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 424 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Junction Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 459 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

The Madison Neighborhood Indicators project seeks to quantify the diverse and changing social conditions in Madison neighborhoods. The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2012 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Madison Neighborhood Indicators 2014

Marquette Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 530 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

The Madison Neighborhood Indicators project seeks to quantify the diverse and changing social conditions in Madison neighborhoods. The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2012 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Milwaukee Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 929 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Near West Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 304 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Madison Neighborhood Indicators 2014

Pioneer Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 956 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Raymond Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 952 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

The Madison Neighborhood Indicators project seeks to quantify the diverse and changing social conditions in Madison neighborhoods. The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2012 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

South Shore Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 379 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Spring Harbor Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 497 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2012 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Notes

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Madison Neighborhood Indicators 2014

University Ridge Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 686 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

Waunona Way Planning District

Madison Planning Districts:

Planning districts are delineated by the City of Madison Planning and Development Office. They are designed to provide data at a useful scale with full coverage of the city. Their boundaries were originally derived from census tract boundaries and they generally include portions of several neighborhoods and alder districts.

Total Area: 247 Acres

Boundary change from previous year: No

Note: Any areas of a neighborhood boundary that lie outside the City of Madison are not included in the map or the table below.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2012 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. Correspondence between some neighborhood associations and planning district geographies required suppression of these data for neighborhood geographies.

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2014 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. Correspondence between some neighborhood associations and planning district geographies required suppression of these data for neighborhood geographies.

The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2014 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. Correspondence between some neighborhood associations and planning district geographies required suppression of these data for neighborhood geographies.

The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2014 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2014 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. Correspondence between some neighborhood associations and planning district geographies required suppression of these data for neighborhood geographies.

The Madison Neighborhood Indicators project seeks to quantify the diverse and changing social conditions in Madison neighborhoods. The project staff has endeavored to provide up to date measures each year, bringing together data from a variety of sources and compiling them into a suite of variables used to generate neighborhood level profile reports.

To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2014 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. To provide a demographic context to the year-to-year indicator data, a population profile sourced from U.S. decennial censuses of 2000 and 2010 is shown directly below. The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2014 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

Notes:

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

Notes:

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

The annually updated indicators are shown on page two of the profile. Definitions for Census and 2014 indicator items can be found on pages three through six.

Notes:

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. Correspondence between some neighborhood associations and planning district geographies required suppression of these data for neighborhood geographies.

Notes:

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. Correspondence between some neighborhood associations and planning district geographies required suppression of these data for neighborhood geographies.

Notes:

Time series data: In some instances year to year variation in counts and rates will reflect changes in the variable definition, geocoding success, or neighborhood boundaries. Data definitions for previous years can be found here: <http://madison.apl.wisc.edu/definitions.php>

1: Student and parent education data are from the Madison Metropolitan School District and show figures for MMSD students or students' households as available; in some instances these represent only a subset of the MMSD student population. See definitions for details.

2: Current year data source or tabulation method is different from previous year. See definitions for details.

3: Multi-year estimate. See definitions for details.

n/a: Cells containing "n/a" indicate that the rate or figure is not applicable or not available for the reference year.

spr*: Cells containing "spr*" indicate that data have been suppressed to protect confidentiality. This means there was a count of five or fewer in the category shown or five or fewer in the counterpart of the category shown, the latter being derivable from the percentage. Correspondence between some neighborhood associations and planning district geographies required suppression of these data for neighborhood geographies.
